

K9s: Learn more about their health, care and behaviour

Sunday 19 September, 10am to 2pm,
Shrewsbury Park. Entrance and parking via Plum Lane SE18.

Are you a dog owner and looking for hints and tips about your pet's welfare, behaviour or information on Greenwich Council's BARK initiative? Join PC Fiona Genovese of the Shooters Hill Safer Neighbourhood team and members of the Eaglesfield Park Neighbourhood Watch Scheme to find out more. Meet the Met Police Dog Handling team and learn more about this special K9 police service.

The team from the Charlton branch of Pets at home will be providing advice. Take advantage of micro chipping your dog by Companion Care vets for a special event price of only £10.00 They will also be on hand to give your dog a free health check consisting of coat, ears, eyes, teeth, weight and general visual check.

Plus a chance to meet canine behaviouralist Emma Collings, a Victoria Stilwell Positively Dog Trainer and founder of School For Paws Dog Training. Emma's aim is to help dog owners achieve a happy and balanced bond with their dog and enjoy a positively enhanced relationship.

For more information about this event visit: www.shnws.org.uk

